SCHOOL COMMENCEMENTS-RICHMOND PU-PILS-YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIA-TION-RAIN, &C. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] JUNE 22, 1877.

To-day a commencement is being made in cutting what will be, some farmers estimate, the largest wheat-crop ever gathered in the Valley of Virginia. Yesterday a commencement was made at reaping on the farm of Dr. David Hanger, a brother of Speaker Hanger.

The declination of Hon. Marshall Hanger to be a candidate for reelection to the House does not surprise those who know him here. What can be said of few men in public life in Virginia may be said of him, and that is that he has never been a candidate in the popular sense of the word for any position. His representation of the people of Augusta has, as he truly says, been unsolicited by himself. In the matter of the next delegation from Augusta you may feel pretty sure that they will all be from the country, and Staunton will take a back seat, at least for awbile.

The week has been full of the final exercises of schools, which brought many strangers to the city, including the everpresent railroad agents. The musical enertainment at the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb, and Blind-an art which is made a feature of education there--drew a tremendous audience, which was fully rewarded by the performance of Professor A. J. Turner's band, orchestra, and vocalists. One of the volunteer singers of the evening was Miss Susie Ridenour, now of Richmond, a former pupil in the blind department, whose reappearance was bailed with furious applause by the audience. The final examination in the educational department Wednesday gave renewed annual evidence of the progress that this State institution makes under Captain C. D. McCoy, the principal. One of the deaf mutes who appeared at the blackboard was Robert Chiles, of Richmond, a pupil who has only been here one year, and yet translated signs into good handwriting on the board with astonishing rapidity. He is a bright boy. The thorough knowledge of the map of this country and Europe, as exhibited by the blind pupils, in answer to chance questions put by a visitor with bewildering rapidity, was astonishing. The institution has had 120 pupils in the past session, and not one

The Sutherlin prize medal was awarded in a neat speech by Rev. William E. Judkins, of Richmond, to Mr. Wilbur F. Tillett, of North Carolina. His opponent, Mr. Simpson, warmly and sincerely congratulated him amid storms of applause. Mr. Mansfield L. Peed, of Petersburg, received the Walton Greek prize. At 8 P. M. the throng had increased to a compact mass, and the exercises of the evening began by the speech of Colonel W. R. Berkeley, of Farmville, before the Franklin Literary Society. Colonel Berkeley's manner suggests Dr. Hoge, nervous and graceful. His speech had already provoked frequent and hearty applause, when the roar of the storm for a while forced him to desist. Though unfortunately interrupted in the very crisis, so to speak, of his discourse, he nevertheless resumed, and for an hour or more delighted the vast throng with his eloquent treatment of his theme, "The Demand for Culture upon the Higher Semina-ries of the Country." Bouquets were plentiful (oh, what sort of poetic simile can I get here -well, here goes,) as dew-diamonds at sunrise! One was so especially suggestive as to call the gallant Colonel to a second address, or rather the challenge of any fair damsel to give him an opportunity for one. (It was a white rose-bud.) The representatives of the Society-

The former told us, in a speech full of humor, satire, and point, "Who were the Frogs." Gossips and croakers met no mercy. These two Messrs. Tillett are the sons of Rev. Mr. Tillett, of the North Carolina Annual Conference. Mr. Alexander's subject was "The Fifth Monarchy or, The United States of America," and was well handled for such a subject.

The gold medal for the best debater was presented by Colonel Berkeley to Mr. James E. Sebrell, of Virginia, and Mr. J. C. Terrell, of Lynchburg, won the declaimer's I omitted last night to say that Mr. Gray

Altogether, this was a commencement season worthy of Randolph-Macon in her palmiest days. The prospects of the Colege seem good for an increased attendance for the next session. A BETTER PROSPECT THAN USUAL FOR WHEAT. The report of June, 1876, made the average for the country 13 per centum below the standard of normal condition, and subsequent returns of the condition and yield were still lower, forecasting the scarcity which has occurred. The average for winter and spring wheat together is this year 100, winter wheat being above that figure and spring wheat below it. There are 277 counties reporting winter

London, June 22-4:30 .- On the Stock Exchange to-day the tendency is somewhat unfavorable, owing to the circulation of political rumors, and up to the present time every movement has been adverse. The provincial newspapers continue the publication of the rumor that the British Government is about to apply to Parliament for an extraordinary grant of $25,000,000. According to one story, this sum is to go toward the purchase of the Suzerainty of Egypt from the Turks. Five million pounds, or $25,000,000, is the exact sum asked for last night for the Indian loan, and this may explain the rumor. An extraordinary story comes from Paris through correspondents of the Telegraph and Standard, to the effect that a grant of 5,000,000 francs has been asked of the budget committee for putting more French ships in commission.

THE DUTY OF WOMAN.—TO BE attractive is a duty which every lady owes to herself, to her domestic circle, and to society. Not only should she endeavor to please in address and in apparel, but, whenever possible, in complexion and in feature as well. Facial embellishment is to a lady as proper, and oftentimes as necessary, as are the adotuments of her raiment, the artificial graces of her conversation, or other meretricious attractions upon which depend so much of her dominton and influence over man. The woman who permits herself to become unlovely, whe resigns herself hopelessly to the ravages of time, and the spoilation of influence over man. The woman who permits her-self to become unlovely, who resigns herself hope-lessly to the ravages of time, and the spoisation of her charms, visits upon her 'riends and admirers a sorrowful regret that it becomes her to avert to the latest day. Of this social duty it may truthfully be said that she can best acquit herself by the use of said that she can best acquit herselt by the use of GOURAUD'S OLYMPIAN CREAM. No other preparation approaches this in excellence, in harm-lessness, and purity. Its advertisement has hitherto been its merit, its recommendation by all that have used it, and not by counting and pretentious adver-
